

South Dakota FRTEP on the Rosebud Reservation

Presented by Kathi Her Many Horses, Rachel Lindvall and featuring all of you!

Focal areas of our programs

(based on input fromSGU needs assessments)

- Youth Leadership and Programming featuring an evolving model of 4H
- Entrepreneurship
- Asset Development including financial literacy, health and social assets and workforce development
- Community Gardens and Local Foods

4-H..... the clover is green...

not white or red or brown or yellow

- Do you have an active 4-H program ?
Tell us about it and where you are from?
- Our model and plan for 4H...
 - Interest clubs and “traditional “ clubs
 - NOT school based

Silos?.....

Uniting Groups and Resources

- Many existing groups already work with youth
- Utilize their structure and incorporate 4-H into their programs
- Boy Scouts, Boys/Girls Club, Tribal College youth programs, JDC all have 4-H interests to work with

Why 4-H?

*We give access to opportunities & resources for curricula and programs that others just don't have

Presentation and Leadership experiences

Creativity

Competition and Collaboration

Don't Forget FUN!

What activities does your 4-H programming do?

4-H on the reservation

- Traditional arts and creative expression
- Character education; pillars and values
- How about a 4-H pow wow?
- Leadership Summit-accentuate positive
- Rodeo school

- There are unique challenges and great opportunities!

Entrepreneurship development in Indian Country

Need:

Growing populations and high under and unemployment

SD reservations, especially Rosebud are rural, remote and geographically isolated

Challenges and Opportunities

- Need Workforce development training
- Access to capital
- Distances to markets
- Culture of ingenuity and creativity
- Great potential workforce
- Many service needs
- Unique location/culture
- Less regimented

Learning Communities for Entrepreneurs...

- General business planning
- Marketing and media
- Specialized sectors= Tourism, Arts, Local Foods and Ag, Service Sectors

What's happening here

- Talking circles for existing entrepreneurs
- Shoppers market for the public
- Sicangu Fund/Lakota Fund for capital
- Collaborate with SGU for biz/marketing teaching and Indianpreneurship
- Collecting speakers and teachers for Spring Conference!!!!

Questions, Comments, Ideas?

- Thank you