Non-Discrimination Statement

www.usda.gov/non-discrimination-statement

- In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs, are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.
- Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible agency or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.
- To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.
- USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender.

Small Business Innovation Research and Small Business Technology Transfer Programs Overview

Purpose and Priorities

RFA Page # 8

SBIR/STTR is intended to support scientific excellence and technological innovation through the investment of Federal research funds to build a strong national economy by stimulating technological innovation in the private sector

- Strengthen the role of small business in meeting Federal research and development needs
- Increase the commercial application of Federally supported research results
- Foster and encourage participation by historically underserved and women-owned small businesses
- STTR objective: stimulate formal cooperative partnerships of ideas and technologies between small businesses and nonprofit research institutions (e.g., Universities, Federal Laboratories)

Applicant Eligibility

- Each applicant must qualify as a small business concern (SBC) through registration with the SBA for R/R&D purposes at the time of selection

For-profit company operating in the U.S.
+ Research performed in the U.S.

More than 50% owned and controlled by U.S. citizen(s) or permanent resident(s)

No more than 500 employees (including affiliates)

Proposal Evaluation Process

Initial Screening Criteria

RFA Page # 50

- The proposing firm must qualify as a small business concern
- The application must meet content and format requirements
 - Summary/Abstract exceeds 250 words and/or is not in PDF format
 - Project Narrative exceeds 17 pages of written text and/or is not in PDF format
- The proposed budget must be within the dollar ceiling identified in the RFA
 - Budget exceeds the ceiling of $131,500 or $181,500, including TABA
- The proposed project must fall within one of the USDA SBIR/STTR topic areas
 - Projects seeking funding solely for product development where no research is involved will be excluded
- An application must contain adequate scientific/technical and market opportunity information that clearly states the project plan and objectives

Contact NIFA if applicant does not receive correspondence from NIFA regarding an application within 30 days of the application deadline.

Evaluation Criteria

RFA Page # 50 - 51

1. Phase I Scientific and Technical Feasibility
2. Market Potential
3. Importance of the Problem
4. Investigator and Resource Qualifications
5. Budget
6. Duplication

Additional factors: Cooperative Research and Development Agreement (CRADA)

CRADA with an Agricultural Research Service (ARS) lab: arp@usda.gov

ARS available technologies: <https://www.ars.usda.gov/ott/available-technologies/>

Evaluation Process

Proposals are assigned for review to at least 3 technical reviewers with expertise in the proposed topic.

Reviewers will produce individual reviews of each proposal, evaluating the strengths and weaknesses.

These written reviews are used to begin panel discussions with other reviewers serving on the peer-review panel.

Through these discussions, peer-review panelists come to consensus on the final rating and ranking of proposals.

Current Research Information System More

Welcome to the Current Research Information System (CRIS) web site. The Current Research Information System (CRIS) provides documentation and reporting for ongoing agricultural, food science, human nutrition, and forestry research, education and extension activities for the United States Department of Agriculture; with a focus on the National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) grant programs. Projects are conducted or sponsored by USDA research agencies, state agricultural experiment stations, land-grant universities, other cooperating state institutions, and participants in NIFA-administered grant programs, including Small Business Innovation Research and Agriculture and Food Research Initiative. The Planning, Accountability, & Reporting Staff office of NIFA is responsible for maintaining CRIS.

Use the top "navbar" to navigate through the CRIS web site, or click on the links in the left and right columns to search the CRIS database, to view the Manual of Classification, or to enter our Forms Assistance web site.
